Once upon a time there lived an old man and an old woman near the sea. They lived in a small house and were very poor. Every day the old man went to the sea to fish but usually he caught nothing and the old woman was very angry. She said: "You are the worst fisherman ever! Why did I marry you?"

One day the old man caught a fish in his net. It was very small – the smallest fish he could ever see but it was also the most beautiful. It was shining with gold and spoke in a human voice: "Please, let me go and I will fulfill three of your wishes." The old man thought and said: "I want to have a bigger house with a larger garden."

"Here you are, old man," said the fish, "now you must go home and see your new comfortable house. I hope your wife is happier now."
